New Immunization Requirements! (7th & 12th Graders)

The Iowa Department of Public Health made changes to the Iowa Immunization Law beginning with the 2018-2019 school year. This change requires that all students entering 7th grade have both a Meningococcal Immunization and a TDAP (Tetanus, Diphtheria, and Pertussis/Whooping Cough) booster before school starts this fall. All students entering 12th grade must have a Meningococcal Immunization before school starts this fall.

Pertussis (whooping cough) is a very contagious disease that causes violent coughing fits that make it hard to breathe. Meningococcal disease is a life threatening illness that is caused by bacteria that infects the brain, blood, and spinal cord. It easily spreads in crowded settings.

7th & 8th Grade Mixed Choir

7&8 Grade Mixed Choir presented their Winter Concert on March 2nd. This group had been working hard to get their music ready. The songs included "O Sifuni Mungu" which is a song featuring a bit of Swahili! It also featured small groups and soloists including Jaelyn Anderson, Jessa Heitland, Kinley Humphrey, Megan Kumsher, Nataly Lattimore, Macie Lau, Brittany Lester, Madi Renner, Emma Schmidt & Olivia Stromer. We followed this up with a Bass Choir favorite, "Jonah," featuring our Bass Clef singers. Next was the full choir song, "Like the Beat of a Drum," followed by the Treble Choir song, "Sisi ni moja" which means "We Are One." The choir finished up their first LIVE performance of the year with the spiritual, "Witness."

High School Choirs

The high school choirs presented their Awesome 80s Pops Concert to a live audience on February 16th. This concert featured music favorites from the 1980s. The Freshman/Sophomore Mixed Choir presented a medley called 80s Dance Party, which included songs like "Material Girl" and "Thriller." This choir also sang the Toto song, "Africa," and the Bon Jovi classic, "Living On a Prayer."

Soloists and small groups were featured throughout, and included the following students:

Madison Barrett	Wyatt Haubrich	Emily Martinson
Caitlyn Bjoraker	Ty Groom	Myah Nessett
Kenedee Frayne	Madison Linahon	Ben Stinnett
Ali Hess	Irene Link
Carly Joynt	Aerick Mary

Special soloists also performed. Those soloists were Emily Martinson, singing "Wind Beneath My Wings," and Caitlyn Bjoraker singing, "Grandpa, Tell Me 'Bout the Good Old Days."

Impulse was next on the roster with their Jazz Choir contest songs, "Voice Dance," and "New York State of Mind." Soloists for New York State of Mind were Abbey Case, Eric Heitland, and Brandon Brown, all GHV seniors.

Brandon then joined Sophomore, Carly Joynt, with a song that hinted at the development of video game music called, "Don't Think Twice."

The Junior/Senior Concert Choir presented their own "Awesome 80s" medley which included songs like "Girls Just Wanna Have Fun," "Mickey," and "Walk Like an Egyptian." The singers followed up with a Treble Clef Choir performance of "True Colors", and a Bass Clef Choir performance of "Carry On My Wayward Son."

Soloists and duets were performed throughout by Abbey Case, Chloe Frank, Eric Heitland, Kenadie Lau, Liz Richardson, Brennan Swartout & Sam Wood. And we can't forget our "cheerleaders" for "Mickey," Lorelei Cash, Shelby Howke, Nick Rivera and Sam Wood! Or our very own "Mickey," Braden Renner!

The Concert Choir ended this special, first-time live performance by singing Billy Joel's song, "And So It Goes," in a completely dark auditorium, surrounding their audience! The soloists for this song were Brennan Swartout and Sam Wood.

Congratulations to the Impulse choir! They participated in the State Jazz Choir contest this year by submitting a video to judges who then gave them a rating of 1, 2 or 3. Impulse received a 2 rating this year, even though they had to work through Covid restrictions! Way to go! Impulse members include:

Seniors: Brandon Brown, Abbey Case, and Eric Heitland

Juniors: Chloe Frank, Kenadie Lau, Braden Renner, Liz Richardson, Brennan Swartout, and Sam Wood

Sophomores: Caitlyn Bjoraker, Sam Dodd, Carly Joynt, and Aerick Mary

Impulse also really enjoyed the chance to sing and dance with the elementary students at their 50s Dance party!

GHV High School Important Events

There are two very important events just around the corner for GHV high schoolers. The first is Prom, a night of dressing up, dancing, and having fun with friends. This event is exciting and creates wonderful memories that last a lifetime, unless teen alcohol or drug use is involved. Parents, talk to your kids. Be sure you encourage responsible behavior with friends and good decision making. This is a night you want to talk about with your son or daughter for years to come!

Here are some tips for parents to help your teen have a safe and memorable prom night:

- Discuss prom night rules with your teen. Have a copy of the prom night schedule with the prom's start and end times.
- Have the details of any pre-and post-prom events.
- Be sure to include the dangers of drinking and driving in your conversation with your teen.
- Be clear about your expectations, including your disapproval of underage drinking or attending parties that will be serving alcohol to minors.
- Make sure your teen has a fully charged cell phone for the night in case of an emergency.
- Establish check-in times for your teen during prom night.
- If your teen needs help because their driver has been drinking or they are in an uncomfortable situation, encourage them to call you – no questions asked. It is better to be safe than sorry.
- Be sure to encourage your teen to have fun and enjoy their night!

Graduation is the other important milestone that will be here for our GHV seniors in just a few short weeks. We encourage parents and families of senior students to provide a party that does not involve drinking. Help make this time a celebration of your student's accomplishments with the focus on them and does not include alcohol.

Senior parents are invited to pick up a yard sign declaring their graduation ceremony is alcohol free. Displaying this sign is one way to promote a positive message about safe and healthy celebrations for our youth. Signs will be available for pick up during Senior Awards Day or by contacting the Allies for Substance Abuse office at 641-843-3863 extension 108, or by emailing director@asap4hc.com.

Impaired Driving: Talk With Your Kids

Impaired driving remains an issue that affects Americans every day. On average, three in five people will be involved in a crash due to impaired driving in their lifetime.¹ Impaired driving can have serious consequences, including injury and death. In 2016, 10,497 people died in crashes caused by alcohol-impaired driving, accounting for 28 percent of all traffic-related deaths in the United States.² Additionally, drugs other than alcohol are involved in about 16 percent of motor vehicle crashes.³

Impaired driving is entirely preventable. Know the facts, and talk with your kids about the dangers of driving under the influence of alcohol or other drugs:

- About one in four teen car crashes involves an underage drinking driver.⁴
- Every day about 800 people are injured in a drunk-driving crash.⁵
- Every day in America, another 29 people die as a result of drunk-driving crashes. That's one person every 50 minutes.⁶

- Marijuana use is increasing, and 13 percent of weekend nighttime drivers have marijuana in their system.⁷

- Marijuana users were about 25 percent more likely to be involved in a crash than drivers with no evidence of marijuana use.²

Keeping Your Kids Safe

The most effective way to stop impaired driving is to prevent it from happening in the first place. Use the following tips when talking with your kids about drunk and drug-impaired driving.

Don't Wait for the "Right" Time—It's always a good time to talk to your kids about the dangers of impaired driving. Here are some common situations you can take advantage of to discuss drunk and drug-impaired driving:

- When your child asks to borrow the car;
- When you're at the dinner table together;
- When your child asks if he or she can ride with a friend to school/a concert/a party;
- When you're running weekend errands;
- When you're at the grocery store; and
- When you and your child are in the car together.

Reinforce Expectations—Make sure your children know what you expect from them when it comes to impaired driving. Let them know it's never okay to get behind the wheel of a motor vehicle while under the influence, and that getting in a car with someone who has been drinking or using drugs is also dangerous.

Help Them Build an Exit Plan—Some kids may not know what to do if a friend or family member who is under the influence of alcohol or other drugs offers them a ride. Explain to your child that it's okay to say no, and help them think through an exit strategy. For example, you can suggest:

- Calling a rideshare service or taxi;
- Calling a relative or friend for a ride home;
- Staying the night at their current location; and
- Convincing the person under the influence not to drive. Mention that drunk and drug-impaired driving is illegal and unsafe and suggest they find another way home.

Show Them You Care—Kids are more likely to listen when they know you're on their side. Make sure they know that you're talking to them about impaired driving because you care about their safety, not because you assume they would ever drive drunk or drug-impaired driving.

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration's "Talk. They Hear You."[®] Campaign aims to equip parents and caregivers with the knowledge and resources they need to talk with their children under the age of 21 about alcohol and other drugs.
