INVENTING AT GHV ELEMENTARY

By Jennifer Kumsher

Inventing is the process of developing original products that meet specific needs, and successfully completing this process requires a major commitment to a task. The U.S. Patent Office has expressed the concern that fewer people are willing to make such a commitment, as evidenced by the decreasing number of patent applications. Inventing is a complex reasoning process that allows students to use their previously acquired knowledge in meaningful ways. The process of inventing helps students reorganize and extend their knowledge by making connections between prior learning experiences.

Through the Talented and Gifted program at Garner-Hayfield-Ventura Elementary students in grades 2-4 have been learning about inventions and innovations. The GHVE Invention Convention will be held April 12-13. Second, third, and fourth graders choosing to participate will bring their inventions to school on April 12. Winners will advance to the Regional Invention Convention on April 17, at Willowbrook Mall in Mason City. Please contact Mrs. Kumsher for further information.

NEW IMMUNIZATION REQUIREMENTS! (7TH & 12TH GRADERS)

by Nurse Bonnie & Nurse Holly

The Iowa Department of Public Health has made changes to the Iowa Immunization Law for the start of the 2018-2019 school year. This change requires that all students entering 7th grade have both a Meningococcal Immunization and a TDAP (Tetanus, Diphtheria, and Pertussis/Whooping Cough) booster before school starts this fall. All students entering 12th grade must have a Meningococcal Immunization before school starts this fall.

Pertussis (whooping cough) is a very contagious disease that causes violent coughing fits that make it hard to breathe. Meningococcal disease is a life threatening illness that is caused by bacteria that infects the brain, blood, and spinal cord. It easily spreads in crowded settings.

All students in 7th and 12th grade must show proof of these immunizations being completed BEFORE the start of the school year.

Immunizations can be given at your physician's office by appointment, or will be offered at school during spring physicals.

SPRING PHYSICALS

Once again, Hancock County Health Services will be teaming with GHV to bring sports physicals to the school. This is a great opportunity to have physicals completed without having to take time off from work/school. Vaccines will be offered during this time as well. Look for more information to come as we finalize dates/times.

PHYLLIS WOIWOOD SCHOLARSHIP

The Phyllis Woiwood Scholarship will again be awarded to a graduate of Garner-Hayfield-Ventura High School for the 2018-19 school year. Mrs. Woiwood taught music to K-6 students in the GHV School for 24 years. The Woiwood family left an amount of money to the Music Boosters to set up a scholarship in her name.

This scholarship can be used by any GHV graduate who would be pursuing music at the college level. The costs of private lessons, instruments, music, etc. is very high and the Phyllis Woiwood Scholarship could greatly aid a young person with musical talent. Applications for the scholarship are available now in the GHV principal's office.

Anyone interested in donating to this non-profit scholarship may send your donation to the GHV High School, 605 Lyon Street, Garner, Iowa 50438. The deadline for applying is June 1.

ELEMENTARY VISUAL ARTS

by Annette Smidt

Our elementary art students continue to amaze and inspire. Each spring, our talented GHV students have been asked to participate in the annual Clear Lake Arts Center Student Art Show. What an opportunity it has been for them to experience having their artwork on display in a gallery along side their peers from neighboring districts! Student artwork filled the gallery from grades K-12 from March 2nd- March 31st. This year's GHVE representatives were:

Cora Bjoraker, Dominic Ashe, Jacob Stromer, Titus Baxter, Katie Mauer, Aubrey Upmeyer, Khamrom Cherry, Carson Madsen, Chloe Bjoraker, Carter Gerdes, Kailyn Byom, Avery Furst, Aurora Boswell-Wood, Jean Hooks, Peyton Poppy, Reed Rauk, Grace Welsh, Myra Rauk, Josh Hejlik, Jaelyn Anderson, Hailey Rombough, Brycen Andersen, and Shane Fetterman.

We were so honored to have been selected. Artwork from Marissa Muff, Dionysus Goll, Meredith Hinz, and Kaleb Feld is featured.

As always, I continue to be so proud of my students and all their achievements. Wishing you a joyful spring season, Mrs. Smidt, Elementary Visual Arts

ARSENIC AND OLD LACE, by Joseph Kesselring Stacie LaMoore

Mortimer Brewster is living a happy life: he has a steady job at a prominent New York newspaper, he's just become engaged, and he gets to visit his sweet spinster aunts to announce the engagement. Mortimer always knew that his family had a bit of a mad gene -- his brother believes himself to be Teddy Roosevelt and his great-grandfather used to scalp Indians for pleasure -- but his world is turned upside down when he realizes that his dear aunts have been poisoning lonely old men for years! When Mortimer's maniacal brother, Jonathan, (who strangely now resembles Boris Karloff) returns on the night that the aunts were planning to bury the newest victim, Mortimer must rally to help his aunts and protect his fiancé -- all while trying to keep his own sanity.

Students Speaking Up

Iowa AC4C goes to Iowa Capitol for Substance Abuse Prevention Day on the Hill

On Wednesday, February 21st, the Alliance of Coalitions for Change (AC4C), a state-wide collaboration to effect positive change in substance abuse, met with state legislators to discuss their concerns about youth marijuana use and substance use in Iowa along with education on increasing the beer excise tax in Iowa.

Six of the Garner Asset Project's Teen Council students were among the several community coalitions, representing a mixture of Iowa's rural and urban populations.

Iowa has a low rate of marijuana use when compared to the national average. However, the perception of harm among youth is declining. A lower perception of harm historically shows us that there will be a rise in use.

The 2016 Iowa Youth Survey showed 10% of 11th graders reporting marijuana use in the past 30 days. 41% of 11th graders believe there is a slight risk or no risk in harming themselves if they use marijuana once a week. In states with policy expansion of marijuana, youth use rose as perception of risk decreased.

For 32 years Iowa's beer tax has remained at LESS THAN $.02 per drink. In Iowa, excessive alcohol use including binge drinking cost $1.9 billion or $1.59 per drink in problems associated with binge drinking in 2010 (CDC, 2016). Alcohol is the most commonly used substance in Iowa and binge drinking is a common form of alcohol consumption. It is a serious public health concern!

Young adults aged 25-34 years of age are most likely to binge drink, followed by those aged 18-24 and 35-44 years old (IDPH). In 2015, 20% of adult Iowans (over 400,000 people) engaged in binge drinking (BRFSS). In 2015, Iowa ranked 5th in the nation for percentage of adults who binge drink (CDC, 2016). According to the 2016 Iowa Youth Survey, 13% of Iowa 11th graders have binge drunk in the last 30 days.

It is important for the health of Iowans to keep drug use at a low rate.

On Tuesday, Feb. 27, 2018, Teen Council members were invited to speak to the Garner City Council offering local student data and National Institute on Drug Abuse data on marijuana. Students offered a draft resolution with best practices for decision makers to consider for potential city zoning of commercial marijuana in the future.

Changing Attitudes: It's not a 'rite of passage'

Alcohol and drug use by young people is extremely dangerous--both to themselves and to society--and is directly associated with traffic fatalities, violence, suicide, educational failure, alcohol overdose, unsafe sex and other problem behaviors, even for those who may never develop a dependence or addiction. Adolescence is a time of heightened risk-taking and as alcohol and drugs enter the picture, parents are faced with a unique set of challenges. Parents often forgive underage drinking as a "rite of passage." They can simply sit back and hope their kids will "get through it," or they can change their attitude and take an active role in learning about alcohol and drugs and help their kids do the same.

It can be daunting to talk with children about drinking and drug use, but it is well worth the effort parents put into it. In fact, research has shown that kids who have conversations with their parents and learn a lot about the dangers of alcohol and drug use are 50 percent less likely to use these substances than those who don't have such conversations.

Here's the opportunity when parents can reinforce that using alcohol is not a 'rite of passage.' In fostering "changing attitudes" parents can help kids understand that drinking isn't a way to feel or be independent, "cool," or to fit in socially. Young people can learn that alcohol is not necessary for having a good time and non-use of alcohol is a healthy and viable option. We can learn to respect another person's decision not to drink alcohol.

"Alcohol and drug use is a very risky business for young people," says Andrew Pucher, President and CEO of NCADD, "and parents can make a difference. The longer children delay

Rules Mean You Care

Set Limits & Monitor

Kids want freedom. You don't want to be a nag. But when you've discovered drug or alcohol use, all bets are off.

Establish Rules & Consequences

Rules provide a concrete way to help kids understand what you expect of them and to learn self-control. Don't just assume they "know" you don't want them to drink or do drugs. Teens and young adults don't deal well with gray areas, so when they're offered alcohol or drugs, you don't want any confusion in their minds.

If you're a parent who feels bad about setting limits, remember that deep down, your child actually wants them. Rules mean that you care about your child and his or her safety. And consequences actually help – not hurt them. A firm consequence, such as getting grounded or having to give up a fun privilege, will remind your child what not to do in the future.

When you lay out rules and consequences, make sure you're clear – and that your child understands the limits you've set before there's opportunity to do something wrong. One great way to do this is to actually write out the things you expect from one another (being home before curfew, getting a ride home from a party if things get out of hand), and jointly sign off on them, in effect, creating a contract.

Write a Contract with Your Child

Smart Choices Make Great Memories

There are two very important events coming up for Garner-Hayfield/Ventura high schoolers. The first is Prom, a night of dressing up, eating out, dancing, and having fun with friends. This event should be exciting and create wonderful memories to last a lifetime, unless drinking or drugs are involved and then it could have a very different ending.

Parents, talk to your kids. Be sure you encourage your student to be responsible in their behavior and with their friends. This is a night you want to talk about with your son or daughter for years to come and not a night you remember as the time you received a call from local law enforcement about an accident or arrest.

Students, talk to your parents. Let them know your plans - who you will be going with, how you will be getting there, when you should be home. While planning your big night, use the tips listed to the left to make smart decisions to help keep you safe and lower stress.

Working together we can help make prom a safe and fun event for everyone.

Prom Night Safety Tips

- ◆ Charge your cell phone and have it with you.
- ◆ Arrange safe transportation and buckle-up!
- ◆ Check in with your parents at some point during the evening and if there is a change in your plans.
- ◆ Trust your instincts -- if you feel uncomfortable or endangered, leave immediately.
- ◆ Smile for the camera: take time to enjoy the moment!

Graduation is the other milestone in every high schooler's life. We encourage parents and families of seniors to provide a party that does not involve drinking. Help to make this time a celebration of your student's accomplishments; put the focus on them, not the alcohol.

Parents of senior students are invited to pick up a yard sign declaring their graduation ceremony is alcohol free. Displaying this sign is one way to promote a positive message about safe and healthy celebrations for our youth.

Signs will be available for pick up during Senior Awards Day or by contacting Deb Quintus at 923-2632 or dquintus@ghvschools.org

- Most parents talk to their kids about drinking two years too late. Age 8 is not too early.

- What parents may not realize is that children say parental disapproval of underage drinking is the key reason they have chosen not to drink.

Teen brain development and alcohol

RESearch shows that alcohol affects a developing teen brain differently than an adult brain. "The brain goes through dynamic changes during adolescence, and alcohol can seriously damage long- and short-term growth processes" (American Medical Association Fact Sheet, 2003).

Alcohol may impair memory, learning, decision-making and impulse control; and it greatly increases the risk of addiction. In addition, alcohol can cause young people to develop social problems, have poor judgment, get into trouble, do poorly in school and experience failure in achieving lifelong goals.

To compound this problem, research shows that parents generally underestimate the extent of teen drinking and its negative consequences. Thirty-one percent of youths who said they had been drunk in the past year were said by their parents to be non-drinkers. Others may view underage drinking as inevitable, but it isn't. To be alcohol-free, a teen needs parents who are trained in BONDING (creating a warm, loving relationship), setting BOUNDARIES (discussing clear, firm rules about no-underage-alcohol use) and MONITORING (knowing where your kids are and making sure they stay in an alcohol- and drug-free social environment at all times).

Alcohol affects a teen brain differently than an adult brain.

- The brain's hippocampus (responsible for learning and memory) can be 10% smaller in underage drinkers.
- It can actually cause serious damage to the still-developing adolescent brain (10–21 years).

JUUL : latest E-Cigarette Popular with Teens

What is JUUL?

in just two years on the market, JUUL, a new type of e-cigarette, has become so popular among young people that it has already amassed nearly half of the e-cigarette market share. The product's quick rise in popularity prompted The Boston Globe to call it "the most widespread phenomenon you've likely never heard of."

Here are some important things to know about JUUL, which may be putting a new generation of youth at risk of nicotine dependence.

How does JUUL work?

JUUL devices heat up a cartridge containing oils to create vapor, which quickly dissolves into the air. The device is small enough to fit in a closed fist and has a sleek, tech-inspired design that resembles a USB flash drive. While its manufacturer says that JUUL is only for adults, it comes in flavors — including mint, mango and crème brulee — which are proven to appeal to young people and facilitate initiation of tobacco product use.

Does JUUL have nicotine?

Yes. In fact, a single JUUL cartridge is roughly equal to a pack of cigarettes, or 200 cigarette puffs, according to the product website. Nicotine is an addictive chemical, and evidence suggests that nicotine use during adolescence and young adult- hood has long-term impacts on brain development.

Many young people, however, do not realize that they are inhaling nicotine when they vape or use e-cigarettes.

The majority of youth e-cigarette users think that the last time they used a product they vaped only flavoring, not nicotine, according to the University of Michigan's 2016 Monitoring the Future study. Yet the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reported that 99 percent of e-cigarettes sold in U.S. convenience stores, supermarkets and similar outlets in 2015 contained nicotine.

Is JUUL safer than smoking cigarettes?

While e-cigarettes are less toxic than combustible tobacco products — still the leading cause of preventable disease and death in the country — there is a catch. Using e-cigarettes has been shown to increase the likelihood of smoking cigarettes among young people.

A new consensus report by the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering and Medicine, Public Health Consequence of E-Cigarettes, states that there is substantial evidence that e-cigarette use increases risk of ever using combustible tobacco cigarettes among youth and young adults. A December 2017 study by the University of Pittsburgh Schools of the Health Sciences, published in the American Journal of Medicine, found that young adults who use e-cigarettes are more than four times as likely to begin smoking tobacco cigarettes within 18 months as their peers who do not vape.

For more information on why young people should not use e-cigarettes, read our statement on the 2016 surgeon general's report on the topic.
